

SIGN REGULATION OVERVIEW

TEMPORARY SIGNS

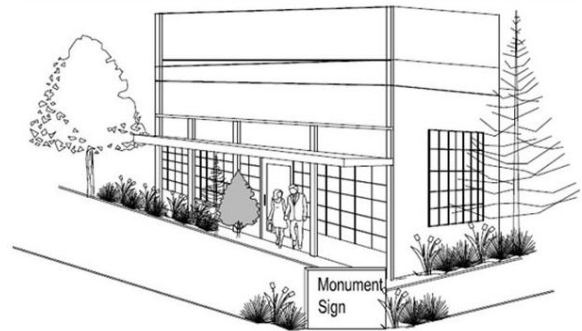

Commercial General (CG) District

- A business is permitted to display one (1) temporary or portable sign advertising on-premises activities for not more than a total of four (4) weeks per calendar year with no period of display being less than one (1) week
- Temporary wall mounted signs should conform with the size and height restrictions for permanent wall signs in the CG District
- Temporary freestanding signs shall conform with the size and height restrictions for permanent freestanding on-premises signs in the CG District
- The permit for a temporary sign should stipulate the number and type of temporary signs and dates of display

Central Business (CB) District

- A business shall be permitted to display one (1) temporary sign or portable sign advertising on-premises activities for not more than a total of four (4) weeks per calendar year with no period of display being less than one (1) week
- Temporary wall mounted signs should conform with the size and height restrictions for permanent wall signs in the CB District
- Temporary freestanding signs should conform to the size and height restrictions for permanent freestanding on-premises signs in the CB District, provided that no temporary sign exceeds 150 square feet
- The permit for a temporary sign should stipulate the number and type of temporary signs and dates of display

Commercial Neighborhood (CN) District

- A business shall be permitted to display one (1) temporary sign or portable sign advertising on-premises activities for not more than a total of four (4) weeks per calendar year with no period of display being less than one (1) week
- Temporary signs should conform with the size and height provisions for the CN District
- The permit for a temporary sign should stipulate the number and type of temporary signs and dates of display

